One of the most difficult decisions in any type of genealogy publishing is deciding when to stop researching the various family lines and when to publish your findings for others to be able to make use of. Having previously done several other books I can honestly advise that every possible family line has never been researched by every available avenue. This gets proven more readily with each passing year. New genealogy information becomes available with each passing day. It is now believed that Man's knowledge and available information doubles every eighteen months.

This book is published knowing that it is incomplete. I acknowledge that I have yet to research many of the various family branches in this book. A few years ago I wrote Ancestors and Relatives of Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV, which detailed my son's complete ancestry. Some of his direct line ancestors were traced back thirteen generations. This current series of books doesn't go back in time; rather, they come forward. Each book begins with one of our son's 'end of the line' direct line ancestor and brings that ancestor's line to the present day. Therefore the reader will find our son, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV as a descendant in every book in this series. Obviously, his direct line from the progenitor in each book is very well documented. Some of the other descendancy lines from the progenitor have not been researched at all.

Why then, might you ask, is this series of books even being produced, if they are not completely researched and documented? The answer is quite simple - all of the family trees and branches, all of the genealogy data, all of the various source notes - do absolutely no good to anyone else when they are stored in my computer databases, census databases, and file cabinets. While it is my intention to eventually work on many of these lines again; I can't be sure that each project will ever be completed. Therefore, while I am young enough, in good health, and have the necessary funds, I am doing this series of fourteen books. There are several other family lines that are absolutely huge; some have been very well documented by other researchers. There are a few other lines that I will be publishing at a later date.

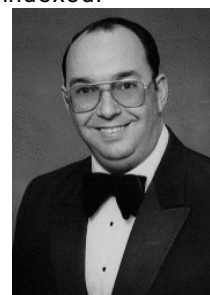

I do not consider myself an expert on any of these lines. Many persons helped me out by researching several of these lines before me. In all cases I have added to their research. Please note that the notes are not rewritten and polished. The books in this series are intended to aid and assist other genealogists who are interested in these various family lines.

Each book in this series is published on a very limited basis. A copy of each has been placed in the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., Daughters of the American Revolution Library in Washington, D.C., Latter Day Saints (LDS) Family Library in Utah, the Maryland State Archives in Annapolis, Maryland, and the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore, Maryland.

An index of each book appears in the back. Please bear in mind that only descendants, their spouses and their spouse's parents are indexed. Persons mentioned in the various notes are not indexed.

She was listed as a widowed white female who was 70 years, 2 months and 3 days old at the time of her death. She was listed as being born in Baltimore City on 28 May 1834. The informant on her death certificate was Katie W. Coleman. This was probably a daughter in law.

Alexander died 24 Feb 1894, in Baltimore City, MD, and was buried 27 Feb 1894, in Mt. Olivet Cem, Baltimore City, MD.

NOTES for Alexander follow:

Civil War - Union from Maryland

A search of the index for the History and Roster of Maryland Volunteers, War of 1861-1865 shows that a person of the same name served in the Union Army from Maryland. He is listed as Alexander Coleman a Private in the Eighth Regiment Infantry, Company F. Alexander Coleman enlisted on 24 August 1862 and was discharged on 17 May 1865. Company F was recruited in Baltimore City. The regiment became a part of the famous Maryland Brigade, and, in the early part of September, 1862, when General Robert E. Lee's Confederate Army of Northern Virginia invaded Maryland and made a demonstration in the direction of Baltimore, the Eighth Regiment, with the Maryland Brigade, were called upon to repel the invaders.

An Alexander Coleman is also listed in the 1890 Veteran's Census from Maryland. He is located in Baltimore County, ED 83 in the Trappe District on page 3.

Living next door to his daughter Emma J. Henrickle and her husband Clement B. Henrickle.

Signed an affidavit for Emma regarding Minor's Pension for their two female underage daughters on 20 May 1892.

Located in the Baltimore City Directory:

Other Census: 1850 1860 1870 1900

According to the records of Mt. Olivet Cemetery he is buried on Lot 146, Area B. His grave cost $5.50 to dig.

Death certificate No. A72794 located at the Maryland State Archives. It is entirely too light to read.

The following is an abstract of Alexander Coleman's Civil War Military and Pension records as received from the National Archives. It is one of the thickest military and pension records I have received to date.

All items have been placed in chronological order according to military service and pension records.

Private Alexander Coleman, Company F, 8th Regiment Maryland, Infantry

Page #1 lists the other documents to follow.

Page #2 contains the Company Muster-in Roll and shows that Alexander Coleman, age 31 years enlisted as a Private in Company F of the 8th Regiment Maryland Infantry. This roll was dated September 1862 at Camp Bradford in Baltimore, Maryland and shows that Alexander Coleman had a muster-in date of 24 August 1862 in Baltimore. It was remarked that he was not entitled to a bounty. His enlistment was for two years signifying that he should be been discharged in August of 1864.

Page #3 - 8 contains slips from Company Muster Rolls

On the Company Muster Roll to 31 October 1862 it was not stated if he was present or absent. On the Company Muster Roll for November - December 1862 he is cited as 'present' with remarks that he was promoted to 8th Corporal on 28 December 1862 after which Corp. Alexander Coleman deserted. On the Company Muster Roll for January - February 1863 his is listed as 'absent' with remarks that he was 'absent without leave. On the Company Muster Roll for July - August 1863 he is listed as 'deserted'. The Company Muster Roll for September - October 1863 contains more information. It cites that Alexander Coleman 'was arrested and tried by G.C.M. found guilty of being absent without leave from the 28th of January 1863 to the 7th of August 1863. Sentenced to lose the pay from the time he was absent, to be reduced to the ranks and perform 20 days police duty. Due the U.S. Government $10.00 for his apprehension.'

He is shown as being present on the Company Muster Rolls dated November - December 1863, January - February 1864, and March - April 1864. On the March - April 1864 roll is remarked that he was detached as Provost Guard, 2nd Division, 5th Maryland.

On a Descriptive List of Deserters apparently written near Culpepper, Virginia, dated 30 March 1864, Corporal Alexander Coleman is listed as deserting on 28 January 1863 in Maryland Heights, Maryland. It also remarked that he was returned 7 August 1863. A note states that the entire entry was cancelled by a line drawn through it.

Alexander Coleman is shown as present on the Company Muster Roll dated May - June 1864 and listed as being detailed by S.D. Hd. Grs. 2 Brig 5 (?). This is probably still in line with the above entry as being detached as Provost Guard to the 2nd Division, 5th Maryland. The same basic comment and remarks appeared on the July - August 1864 and September - October 1864 with the exception that he is listed as absent. The November - December 1864 entry goes into more detail stating that he is 'absent sick in hospital. Received $16.00 from Maj. Martin, Paymaster U.S. Army, while on furlough from hospital. Due U.S. Government $2.00 for transportation. The January - February and March - April 1865 entries both state he was 'absent - sick in hospital'.

The Company Muster Out Roll is dated 31 May 1865 in Arlington Heights, Virginia and shows that Private Alexander Coleman, age 30 years, was last paid to October 31, 1864. It was remarked that he was 'absent - sick in Jarvis U.S. Government Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Due him $100 Government Bounty. Due him for clothing $15.76.' On the Individual Muster Out Roll dated 17 May 1865 it is stated that Private Alexander Coleman was Mustered out on 17 May 1865 and that he was last paid to 28 February 1865. Under the clothing account it is remarked 'due U.S. $16.04'. It also stated 'Bounty paid - $25, Bounty due - $75' and remarked that bounty pay from 30 June 1864 to 1 January 1865. Discharged in accordance with ? from A.G.O. dated 4 May 1865.'

Pages 9 - 13 of Alexander Coleman's military records contains some very interesting items. You will recall that several of his company muster rolls listed him as deserted. Records indicate that Alexander Coleman either forged a pass or had a pass forged on his behalf. The actual forged pass is contained in his military records. It read:

To whom it may concern - The bearer hereof Alexander Coleman Corporal in Captain Beal D. Riddle's F Company 8th Regiment Maryland Volunteers aged thirty one (31) years, five (5) six (6) inches high light complexion blue eyes dark hair and by profession a stone cutter born in the State of Maryland and enlisted at Baltimore City in the State of Maryland on twenty forth (24) day of August eighteen hundred and sixty two (1862) to serve the period of three (3) years is hereby permitted to go to the City of Baltimore in the State of Maryland he having a furlough from the twenty forth (24) day of January to the thirty first (31) of January eighteen hundred and sixty three (1863) at which period he will rejoin his company and regiment at Camp Tar near Harpers Ferry, Virginia or where ever it there may be or be considered a deserter. Given under my hand at Camp Tar near Harpers Ferry this twenty forth (24) day of January eighteen hundred and sixty three (1863). Signed by Beal D. Riddle, Captain Commanding Company F, 8th Regiment Maryland Volunteers. Approved and signed by A. W. Denison, Colonel, 8th Maryland Regiment.

Page # 10 - dated 4 February 1863 is a note from J. Simpson, Surgeon, Medical Director and states 'call attention to irregular furloughs and enclosing a copy of one.' It is then stated 'Respectfully referred to Brig. Gen. Kenly Commanding Forces Harpers Ferry, Virginia' and is dated 7 February 1863. It continues 'Respectfully referred to Col. A. W. Denison Commanding 8th Regiment Maryland Volunteers who will report whether he approved a furlough to Corp. Coleman the copy of which is herewith enclosed'. The next document on page # 10 is dated 8 February 1863 and comes from Headquarters of the 8th Maryland and states 'The furlough of Corporal Alex Colement is a forgery. None have been issued since the receipt of recent orders' and is signed by Col. A. W. Denison of the 8th Maryland Regiment.

Page # 11 comes from the Medical Director's Office, 8th Army Corps, Baltimore, Maryland and is dated 4th February 1863 and reads "Colonel, I have the honor to invite the attention of the General Commanding to the enclosed verbatim copy of a furlough borne by a member of the 8th Maryland Vols, recently taken sick and admitted to Hospital in this city. I desire to invite his attention of the large number of irregular leaves given the soldiers in Maryland Regiments by subordinate officers many of which come under notice of this office by the soldiers being taken ill here. Very respectfully, Your Ob't Servant, ? Simpson, Surgeon, U.S.A., Medical Director.'

- Page # 12 consists of the following: 'Headquarters, U.S. Forces at Harper Ferry 16 February 1863 - Respectfully transmitted to Doctor F. Simpson Surgeon U.S. Army Medical Director 8th Army Corps Baltimore see endorsement of Col. A.W. Denison Commanding 8th Regiment Maryland Volunteers.' Signed by John R. Kenly Brig. Gen. Commanding. The next paper is dated 19 February 1863 from Harpers Ferry, Virginia and states 'Respectfully forward with the remark that measure the most ? have been adopted to prevent the absence without leave of the officers and men of this command and it is hoped that the number of those so absent will be but few.' Signed by B.F. Kenly, Brig. Gen. The 3rd item is dated 21 February 1863 from the Medical Director's office and states 'The written papers are respectfully furnished by Surgeon A. B. Hasson, USA, in charge Camden Street Hospital for his information. He is requested to turn the man over to the Provost Marshal when he may be sufficiently well with miscellaneous comments for his actions. His company commander will be notified in proper time. By orders Medical Director.
- Page # 13 is dated March 1863 and comes from the U.S. Army General Hospital located at Camden Street, Baltimore. It is written to Col. Fish and states 'Sir, I have the honor in accordance with orders from Surgeon J. Simpson, Medical Directory to forward you the enclosed papers. I also send you Corp. Coleman the party charged with the forgery for your action. I am Sir very respectfully your Obedient Servant', signed by B. Hasson, Surgeon.
- The final paper from his military records is dated 9 August 1863 in Baltimore. This letter is written to Lt. Andrews, Provost Marshall of Fort McHenry and states 'Sir, J. D. Brown will deliver to you Alexander Coleman, Corporal Company F, 8th Maryland Volunteers a deserter from the Military Service of the U.S. and is signed by J. McPhail
- A recap of his military service shows that he was mustered in on 24 August 1862 and remained with his unit under 28 January 1863 when he deserted. It appeared that he was returned about 4 August 1863 and remained with his unit through February 1864 at which time he was detached to other units from March 1864 - October 1864. From November 1864 until the end of the war he was in the hospital. Actually the others units appear to other Brigades, Divisions, and Corps. It does not appear that he actually left the men in his Company, they just incorporated with other units.
- From the above timetable it would appear the Alexander Coleman did not participate in any real engagements in the early stages of the war as he was only with Company F, 8th Maryland Regiment from his enlistment of 24 August 1862 until his desertion 28 January 1863. He was then again with them from September 1863 until November 1864 when he wound up in the hospital where he remained until the end of the war.
- However things really picked up for the unit in mid May of 1864 and Alexander Coleman would have been involved in the following engagements:
- 5-7 May, 1864 Battle of the Wilderness, Virginia 8-20 May, 1864 Battle of Spottsylvania, Virginia 19 May, 1864 Battle of Harris' Farm, Virginia 23-27 May, 1864 Battle of North Anna, Virginia 30 May, 1864 Battle of Shady Grove, Virginia 31 May - 1 June 1864 Battle of Bethesda Church, Virginia 2-5 June 1864 Battle of Cold Harbor, Virginia 17-18 June 1864 Assault on Petersburg, Virginia 18-21 August 1864 Battle of Weldon Railroad, Virginia 30 September 1864 Battle of Poplar Springs Church, Virginia 1-3 October 1864 Battle of Chapel House, Virginia 7 October 1864 Battle of Peeble's Farm, Virginia 27 October 1864 Battle of Hatcher's Run, Virginia
- He would not have been at the Surrender at Appomattox, Virginia on 9 April 1865 as he was in the hospital at that time. Overall the death casualties in the 8th Regiment of Infantry were as follows: Killed, three commissioned officers and 54 enlisted men. Died of wounds, disease, etc, 70 enlisted men, or an aggregate death list of 127. Over 250 men of this command were wounded at different time in the severe battle in which this regiment was engaged. During its military service the 8th Regiment of Infantry marched 1170 miles and travelled 604 miles by rail - an aggregate of 1774 miles.
- The regiment became a part of the famous Maryland Brigade, and, in the early part of September 1862, when General Robert E. Lee's Confederate Army of Northern Virginia invaded Maryland and made a demonstration in the direction of Baltimore, the Eight Regiment, with the Maryland Brigade, were called upon to repel the invaders.
- Records indicate that in January 1864, the Maryland Brigade became the 2nd Brigade, 3rd Division, 1st Army Corps. On 23 March 1864 it became the 3rd Brigade, 2nd Division, 5th Army Corps and on 6 June 1863 it became the 2nd Brigade, 2nd Division, 5th Army Corps until the expiration of the close of war.
- The pension record of Alexander Coleman is one of the largest that I have seen to date. It alone totals 50 pages and includes many interesting items. While I can not include every piece of information and text from every line into these notes I will attempt to describe each sheet. I will, on occasion, type in quite a bit of information from certain documents. I have place the file in chronological order even though some of the document might have arrived in the file out of sequence (as in the case of marriage certificates, etc.).
- Page # 1: This is a certificate stating that in 'Baltimore City in the State of Maryland on the fifth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine a license issued from the Office of the Clerk of Baltimore City Court, directed to the Reverend Mr. Vinton or any other person qualified by law to celebrate the Rites of Marriage between a certain Alex Coleman and Margt. Ann Hartlove of Baltimore County.' This certificate was dated 8th March 1890. A search of ministers with the surname Vinton revealed only four Rev. Vintons from Maryland. Of these three are quickly dismissed as they served after 1850. It would appear however that the Rev. Vinton who married Alexander Coleman and Margaret Hartlove was Rev. Robert Spencer Vinton who died 31 July 1870. He was a Methodist Episcopal preacher and served in many parishes throughout Maryland. It appears that during the period of about 1849 he was in the Baltimore Circuit serving Pleasant Hill, Owings Mills and Govanstown (1849-1850) and was listed as being on William Street in Baltimore (1847-1848), in South Baltimore (1848).
- Page # 2: This is a listing of the various declarations, statements, affidavits and claims in this pension file.

- Page #3: This is Alexander Coleman's original declaration for an invalid pension and is dated 24 March 1888 in Baltimore City. It states (in part) that Alexander Coleman, aged 57, a resident of the County of Baltimore, enrolled on the 21st day of August 1862 in Company F of the 8th Regiment of Maryland Volunteers and was honorably discharged at Baltimore on the 17th day of May 1865. It gives his personal description as 57 years, 5 feet 6 inches, fair complexion, dark hair, and blue eyes and that while a member of the organization aforesaid in the service and line of his duty at or near Virginia on or about 1864 contracted heart disease. It further states this heart disease occurred in the fall campaign of 1864 in the State of Virginia and was caused by the presence of his knapsack and cartridge box. He was sent to Mount Pleasant Hospital in Washington, D.C. and that he didn't know the name of the doctor who attended him. It then stated he was treated in National Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland by Dr. Bliss. It continued stating that he had lived in Baltimore, Maryland. It does appear that Alex. Coleman signed this declaration as there is no 'X' next to his name.
- Page #4: The document is on the stationery of the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions and is dated 13 June 1888 and is stamped as being received into the Adjutant General's Office on 15 June 1888. It basically is a rewording of some of the above stated information and is signed by John Black, Commissioner. In part it states that 'I have the honor to request that you will furnish the records of the War Department a full report as the service, disability and hospital treatment of Alexander Coleman.
- Page #5: This is again on the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions letterhead and signed by John Black, Commissioner requesting the same information as above. It is also dated 13 June 1888.
- Page #6: This document is also dated 13 June 1888 and reads 'Case of Alex. Coleman, Private, Company F, 8th Reg't Maryland - Claim 648319' and basically is a request from the Surgeon General of the USA to the War Department.
- Page #7 & #8: Dated 13 June 1888. These are a continuation of the page 6 and appears to be a brief medical record for Private Coleman. It shows that on 20 September 1864 he was seen in the hospital until 29 September 1864. The second entry shows that he was attended to in Virginia from 20 September 1864 until 4 October 1864. The third entry shows that on 5 October 1864 he was in the Mt. Pleasant Hospital in Washington, D.C. with 'endocarditis with a sympathetic or abnormal condition of the mitral valves or both' and that he was furloughed 11 October 1864 to 3 November 1864 but that he was readmitted 22 October and 17 November 1864 and transferred 9 December 1864 to Baltimore, Maryland. The final entry of 12 December 1864 shows he was at Camden Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.
- Pages #9-11: These three pages are dated 2 July 1888 and are from the Adjutant General's Office of the War Department and appears to be a recapitulation of his military record stating that 'Alexander Coleman, Private of Company F, 8th Regiment Maryland Volunteers was enlisted on the 24th day of August 1862 at Baltimore, Maryland for 3 years and is reported as present on rolls of company from muster in to 31 December 1862, January and February 1863, absent without leave from the 28th day of January 1863. Rolls March & April, May & June 1863 name not shown. Roll July and August 1863 reports him absent - deserted (no date give), September & October 1863 present with remark was arrested and tried by G.C.M. {probably meaning General Court Martial} found guilty of being absent without leave the 28th day of January 1863 to the 7th of August 1863. Sentence - to loose the pay for the time he was absent to be reduced to the ranks and perform 20 days police duty. Due the U.S. Government for apprehension - $10.00. Present to 30 June 1864, July & August 1864 absent - detached in Brigade Pioneer Corps. Name to 31 October 1864. November & December 1864 absent sick in hospital - received $16.00 from Maj. Martin, Paymaster U.S. Army while on his furlough from hospital. Rolls January & February, March & April 1865 - absent sick in hospital. Individual muster out roll dated 17 May 1865, Baltimore, Maryland reports him mustered out on that date a Private. Regimental hospital records are not on file. The records of this office furnish no additional evidence of disability. Signed R.C. Drum, Adjutant General.'
- Page #12: This is Claimant's Affidavit Before a Clerk and is dated 20 February 1889. It states that Alexander Coleman of Company F of the 8th Regiment of Maryland Volunteers personally appeared by Mr. Campbell a Deputy Clerk of the Superior Court and duly sworn stated that he contracted disease of the heart about the year 1864 in the State of Virginia. This document was signed by Alexander Coleman.
- Pages #13 & #14: Dated 27 February 1889. These two pages represents the Original Invalid Claim and Pension Approval. It states that Alexander Coleman of 1137 South Paca Street (crossed out was the address of 1211 Scott Street) of Baltimore has been pensioned for the disease of chest at the rate of $12.00 per month, commencing 2 April 1888. Alexander's recognized attorney was P.J. Lockwood of Washington, D.C. who was paid a fee of $25.00. It further states that all articles were filed on 29 March 1889. The various signatures were attached from the Legal Reviewer, Re-Reviewer, Medical Reviewer, and Medical Referee. It showed the important dates as 24 August 1862 (enlistment), 17 May 1865 (discharged) and 2 April 1888 (declaration filed). The basis of claim states that he 'alleges in declaration filed 2 April 1888 that while in line of duty in Virginia about the year 1864 he contracted disease of heart'. It also states that at the time of examination on 27 June 1888 he lived at 1211 Scott Street in Baltimore, Maryland and that up to that point he did not receive any pension. It was listed that his pulse rate per minute was 120, respiration - 20, tempature - 98.5, height 5' 7", weight 108 lbs and age 58 years. The complete medical report was rather unreadable due to poor handwriting, however the last sentences stated that 'Man's health seems to be decidedly failing'. The conclusion stated that 'he is, in our opinion, entitled to a 8/18 rating for disability caused by ? heart and disease of lungs.
- Page #15: This is a General Affidavit signed by Alex. Coleman and witnessed by William McCawly, Justice of the Peace and is dated 12 March 1889. It states that 'I was afflicted while enrolled in the U.S. Army a member of Company F, 8th Regiment of Maryland Volunteers in 1864 on or about the middle of November, while in the line of duty for which I claim a pension. The reason I have not made my claim before is because I did not want to come on the Government which I was able to make a living without it. When I was discharged which was on the 17th day of May 1865 at Baltimore, Maryland. After being out of the Army a few months and things becoming settled I got somewhat better, but for the last two years I have been failing continually getting worse until I am scarcely able to do anything at the present time.

Page #16 & 17: Page #16 is not dated but is written in the same handwriting as page #17 which is dated 25 March 1889. It actually appears that both pages were written by Alexander Coleman as the signature appears to match the writing from the body of both documents. The first is a Historical Statement stating that 'I incurred heart disease from the pressure of the knapsack in the fall of 1864. I was sent to City Point Hospital in November 1864 and in the same month was sent to Mt. Pleasant Hospital Washington, D.C. and in December I was transferred to National Hospital Baltimore.' He then wrote that he was treated by 'Dr. Spides - Lombard St., Baltimore, Dr. ? Cogt - Dead, Dr. Bangale - Dead, and Dr. Blake - ? Street, Baltimore.' It continued that 'my affliction is worse at the present time then it has even been. I am in my brother's shop just to keep the place clean. If it was not for that I would not be able to do anything and not able to do that one half of my time.' Signed by Alexander Coleman. This definitely looks like it was written by him as the grammar, handwriting, and spelling is very poor. [This document points to the fact that Alexander Coleman had at least one brother who owned some sort of shop and was living in March 1889.] Page #17 is the Physician's Affidavit and appears to again be in the handwriting of Alexander Coleman. It states that he was living at 1137 South Paca Street, Baltimore City. This document was supposed to be completed and signed by the attending physician. However at the top of the disposition is written 'It is impossible for me to get the affidavit of Dr. White. I never was treated for my disease while with my regiment. I was taken while the army was moving and I was taken to City Point and the next day I was sent to Washington Mount Pleasant Hospital and staid there three weeks and was then transferred to Nashismal (National?) Hospital Baltimore. And of course the regiment knows of my case this about all I can state. Surgeon nothing.' Signed by Alex. Coleman. Underneath is an address of 36 St. Peter Street. This was sworn before William McCawley.

Page #18 & 19: This is a handwritten letter from Alex. Coleman of 1127 South Paca Street, Baltimore, Maryland dated 23 April 1889 apparently to P.J. Lockwood of Washington, D.C. It reads: 'Dear Sirs, I receive the two blanks which you requested me to furnish medical evidence of my disability since my discharge from the U.S. Army. It is impossible for me to give any evidence of my treatment for heart disease in the early days of my discharge on account that the 2 doctors that attended my when first discharged are dead which are Dr. A. Z. Cook and Dr. Dodg, President of the Board of Examining Board of Pension. I can furnish evidence of these two doctors death and that they attended me for heart disease, that is about all of the evidence I can give. Please answer this and let me know just what my prospects is of getting my money and just what I am got to do in order to get it.' Signed by Alex. Coleman.

Page # 20: This is a General Affidavit by Thomas S. Reed (who made his mark) dated 24 June 1889 and witnessed by William McCawley and Joseph McCawley. It states that Thomas S. Reed was 70 years of age and resided at 1236 Scott Street in the City of Baltimore. It reads 'I have known Alexander Coleman for the last thirty years. Knew him before he enlisted in the Army. Knew him to be a healthy and sound man before the war. Knew him during the war was in the same brigade. Also in the hospital with him. While I was confined there with a wound in the face (jaw?) I saw Coleman. He was then a very sick man. He required attention night and day. He was suffering from asthma and an affection of the heart. During this spell of sickness Coleman required to be carried wherever he wished to move. This was in the National Hospital Camden Street Baltimore, Maryland in the year 1864. Since the war I have been well acquainted with him during that time have seen him often. Several times have I taken him home when he had spells from heart trouble. On two occasions I have had to carry him on my back to him home feeling sure that he was in a dying condition. Since then he has been a constant sufferer from heart trouble and for the last four months has been totally disabled from doing any work at all. Ever since the war he has been when able done light work for him Brother. He has been entirely disabled from doing any hard work at anytime since the war and has been unable to work for any one but his Brother. No one would employ him in his condition. I know these facts from being a neighbor of him every since the war ended.'

There was a Thomas M. Reed who served in the Eight Regiment, Company A, however the affidavit clear states a Thomas S. Reed. Research reveals there were two Thomas S. Reeds serving from Maryland. The first was a Private in Company H of the Fourth Regiment Infantry. He is listed as serving from 18 August 1862 to 17 May 1865 with comments of 'wounded in action'. This could certainly have been the reason that he was in the hospital with Alexander Coleman. The second Thomas S. Reed is listed as having the exact same service dates and served in Company I of the Fourth Regiment Infantry with comments 'wounded in action. October 7, 1864, Pebble's Farm, Virginia, discharged for disability. This appears to be the same person as the first Thomas S. Reed. It would appear this would be the Thomas S. Reed who signed this affidavit.

Page #21: This is a General Affidavit signed on 24 June 1889 by Jacob Ledley and witnessed by William McCawley, Justice of the Peace. He stated that 'I became acquainted with Alexander Coleman some few month after the war ended. Since that time and up to the present time I have been intimately acquainted with him. I have often sat up with him during his spells of sickness from an affliction of the heart. Often times have I thought that this would be his last night from the difficulty he had in getting his breath. Occasionally from the time I first became acquainted with him has been able to do any light work and totally unable to do any hard work and now at the present time he is unable to do anything and has been in this condition for the last four months all proceeding from his heart trouble. I know the facts as listed by reason of being an intimate friend of Alexander Coleman ever since the war ended.'

Page # 22: This is a completed form for a Declaration For Increase of Pension and is dated 10 December 1889. It states that Alexander Coleman, aged 59 year declares that he is a pensioner of the United States enrolled at the rate of $12 per month under Pension Certificate No. 451,022 by reason of a disability from disease of chest and that he appoints P.J. Lockwood of Washington, D.C. attorney to prosecute this claim because he believes himself to be entitled to an increase of pension on account of his rate being unjustly low and disproportionate to the degree of his disability.

Page #23: This is a Increase in Invalid Pension approved by the government and dated 13 December 1889. It states that Alexander Coleman of 1011 Mالدies (?) Street in Baltimore, Maryland would receive $24.00 per month commencing 5 March 1890. He was approved for disease of chest and elevated to a 3rd grade pension having been pensioned from 2 April 1888 at a rate of $12.00 per month.

Page #24 & #25: This is another Declaration for Increase of Pension and shows that Alexander Coleman was examined on 5 March 1890. The document is stamped 17 March 1890. It apparently is the medical examination associated with the above approved increase in pension as it concludes 'he is, in our opinion, entitled to a 3rd grade rating for the disability caused by disease of lungs and disease of heart.' It states that Alexander Coleman claims that 'disability has greatly increased. Has cough, pain in chest, shortness of breath, and fainting at times and that he cannot perform manual labor. Pulse rate was 120, respiration 24, height 5' 6", weight 100 pounds.' It was noted that his general physical condition is very bad, muscles soft and flabby. He chest measured 31", 32 1/4 expanded. It is very difficult to read the handwriting of this report.

Page #26 & #27: Both pages are for another Declaration For The Increase of an Invalid Pension and are dated 13 September 1890. They state that Alexander Coleman of 1143 Washington Avenue of Baltimore County receiving $24.00 per month by reason of disability believes himself to be entitled to an increase of pension on account of increased disability of disease of chest, resulting in disease of hear and lungs and is now totally unable to perform any manual labor whatsoever. This document was not signed by Alexander Coleman, instead he placed his mark.

Page #28 & #29: These pages are General Affidavits dated 16 April 1892 [There was apparently not activity during 1891]. The affidavit is signed by Dr. Edward Grempler aged 27 years of the City of Baltimore and stated that 'I am a graduate of the Baltimore Medical College class of 1889 and have examined the claimant Alexander Coleman and find him to be suffering with disease of chest resulting in disease of heart and lungs disabling him and that in my opinion he is totally unable to perform any manual labor whatsoever.' The Doctor had an address of 519 Scott Street.

Pages #30 & #31: Both pages detail the examination of Alexander Coleman as performed on 11 May 1892 by the medical board. It is the only typewritten document in this file. It states that 'claims increase on the ground that the disability has so increase as to entirely prevent the performance of manual labor. Has done no work at all for the past two years. Constant cough with the expectoration of blood and corruption. Pain through the chest with a smothering sensation. Palpitation of heart on the least exertion or excitement. Faints often, and falls in the street at times. Pulse rate 108, respiration 22, temperature - normal, height 5' 6", weight 97 pounds, aged 61 years. General physical condition is very bad. Extreme emaciation. Muscles wasted and flabby. Bones prominent. Anaemic and feeble appearance. Skin pale. Cheeks sunken and face has haggard expression. Slight tremor of hands. Chest: Measurements 31 1/4, 32 1/4, 30 3/4 inches on forced respiration. Depression in clavicular spaces. Percussion note lowered in pitch over the apices, with slight increase of vocal resonance. Respiratory sounds are exaggerated. Inspiration, harsh, coarse and bronchial in character. Expiration is prolonged and rather faint. Some increase of vocal resonance over the left lower lobe posteriorly and respiratory sounds are rather faint and jerking in character, in this locality. Cough is loose with thick yellowish expectoration, which he states is tinged with blood at times. There are numerous small mucous scales scattered through the lungs. He states that he has had several severe attacks of pneumonia. Claimant is suffering with chronic bronchitis and debilitated condition is the result. Disability is equivalent to loss of hand or foot and we recommend Third Grade rating. Heart: Apex beat much diffused but most distinct over cartilage of seventh rib, somewhat to right of line of normal position. Area of cardiac dullness in increase. Action is regular and weak. Pulse is weak and compressible. After walking about the room for a few minutes, pulse rises from 108 to 124, becomes stronger but slightly irregular. Respiration rises during the same time, from 22 to 32, tremor of hands became marked, face flushed and became rather excited. Has dilatation of heart. We recommend rating of twelve-eighteenths. Claimant is in bad condition and in our opinion would be unable to perform manual labor in his present condition. No other disability exists.'

Page #32: This document is the approved Increase in Invalid Pension and was approved by the Medical Referee on 18 June 1892 and the Legal Reviewer on 25 June 1892. It increased Alexander Coleman's pension from a 3rd Grade of $24.00 per month to a 2nd Grade of $30.00 commencing 11 May 1892. It reveals that at that time Alexander Coleman was living at 1149 Pinckney Street in Baltimore, Maryland.

Page #33 & #34: This is another General Affidavit dated 17 October 1892 and is signed by Emma Langard (she gave her mark). It states that Emma Langard, aged 42 of 1220 W. Stockholm Street in the City of Baltimore claims 'that she has been intimate and personally well acquainted with the claimant Alexander Coleman for the past 20 years being her neighbor. Visited the wife of this claimant two or three times a week. During all those years the claimant has been more or less an invalid and seriously disabled from manual labor. During past two years the claimant has been much worse, so much so, as to require frequent and periodical thorough and regular aid and attendance. Have seen his wife aiding to dress him, have helped him myself to move around the house and with his clothing. He could not go out of the house without some one to help him. During the last two years he has been so helpless at intervals as to be confined to his bed for two weeks at a time.' The interesting part of this affidavit is that Emma Langard is the daughter of Alexander Coleman. She married Clement Henrickle, also a Union Civil War Veteran, who died in 1881. After that time she married George Langard. Of particular - interest are three items. The first is that she stated she was aged 42 which confirmed her birth year at about 1851. The second is that she claims to have been intimately and personally acquainted with the claimant for the past twenty years. What is interesting about the second part is while she is 42 years old she has certainly known her father her entire life. However she has, in the eyes of the law, only been an adult for about 20 years, therefore the statement. The third item which is rather revealing is that she claims she has helped him dress himself. Certainly a neighbor or friend would not performing such a chore; however a daughter would.

- Pages #35 & #36: Both pages are another Declaration for the Increase of an Invalid Pension and is dated 18 October 1892. It states that Alexander Coleman, aged 62, of 1149 Pinckney Street in Baltimore City, Maryland, a pensioner at the rate of $30.00 per month believes himself to be entitled to an increase of pension on account of increased disability.
- Page #37: This is a General Affidavit of Jacob Ledley, aged 67, of 1172 Columbia Avenue of Baltimore, Maryland. He states that 'during the year he (meaning Alexander Coleman) has been so seriously disabled as to require the frequent and periodical care of others to dress him and even to feed him, or if ever out of doors to help support him and take care of him. The deponent (meaning Jacob Ledley) has helped him at times to get in and out of bed. During the last two years I visited the claimant's house three or four times a week.'
- Pages #38-#40: These pages concern the Medical Report for the applicant's request for increase in pension and contains a stamped date of 30 November 1892. The reports states the previously contained information with the additional piece of information that the claimant bases his claim for increase 'after the campaign of 1864, Battle of Cold Harbor, was affected with disease of heart of and lungs' and that 'he has lost weight during the last two years'. His current weight was listed as 94 pounds. It was stated that 'The Board considers this applicant deserving an increased rating but do not feel justified in making it a First Grade'. The Increase for Invalid Pension was allowed and Alexander Coleman was given a rate of $50.00 per month, commencing 26 November 1892.
- Page #41: This is a transcript from the Records of Deaths in the City of Baltimore dated 6 March 1894 stating that Alexander Coleman, married, died on 24 February 1894. He was 62 years, 8 months and 6 days old and was born in Maryland living in Baltimore City for 50 years. He was living at 1104 Columbia Avenue at the time of his death and was buried in Mt. Olivet Cemetery. The medical attendant was Dr. Edward Grumpler and the undertaker was N.J. Tickner & Son. The age of 62 years, 8 months, and 6 days sets his birth date as 18 June 1831.
- Pages #42 - #45: These pages are the Widow's Claim for Pension and are dated 28 February 1894. They state that Margaret A. Coleman of 1104 Columbia Avenue in the City of Baltimore, aged 59 years states she is the widow of Alexander Coleman, that her maiden name was Margaret A. Hartlove and that she was married to Alexander Coleman on the 7th of January 1849 in Baltimore by Rev. Vinton. She further states that Alexander Coleman died on the 24th day of February 1894 and that there are no children under 16 years of age. Margaret made her mark on the document which was witnessed by George H. Bowersox and Augustus Bowersox. There was a General Affidavit from George Bowersox, aged 47 years of 841 St. Peter Street and Augustus Bowersox, aged 52 years of the same address in Baltimore City that 'we are neighbors and intimate friends of the claimant Margaret A. Coleman who is the widow of Alexander Coleman. That we have known the said parties for the last 24 years and 30 years respectively and from a frequent intercourse with friends and a close association with said parties, that we do know in all these years said parties lived together as man and wife and were so recognized in the community in which they lived. The deceased always treated and acknowledged the claimant as his lawful wife, that we never hear that fact or their marriage disputed and we further certify from close association and frequent intercourse that the claimant has not remarried since the death of her husband Alexander Coleman. We further declare this affidavit was written in our presence from our statements made to Mr. S. Fuerck and in making the same we were not aided by any form or dictation primary source. They also stated they were personal and intimate friends of said parties for the past 24 years and 30 years respectively and having seen the dead body of said husband.'
- Page #45: This apparently is a covering for the folder of the Widow's Pension.
- Page #46: This is the approval for the Widow's Pension of Margaret A. Coleman stating she would receive $12.00 per month commencing 25 February 1894. No underage children were listed.
- Page #47: This document dated and approved 19 March 1894 stated that Margaret A. Coleman's pension had been approved and that the certified copy of marriage license had been presented along with the copy of death record of Alexander Coleman.
- Page #48: This is a listing of the Accrued Pension Record of Alexander Coleman showing his original pension of $12.00 per month from 2 April 1888, an increase to $24.00 per month from 5 March 1890, an increase to $30.00 per month from 11 May 1892 and an increase to $50.00 per month from 26 November 1892. It stated that a widow's certificate has been supplied.
- Page #49: This is the final page of the pension file and states that Margaret A. Coleman received $12.00 per month commencing 25 February 1894. On the page is stamped DEAD. Part of the page is cut off but it states that on 8 August 1905 they were advised of death (of Margaret A. Coleman) from J. Dill & Son of 746 Columbia Avenue, Baltimore and giving date of death 1 August 1904.

He is not listed in 1876-8 but is found in the 1879 BCD and living on Parkin St. Clement's brother Abel also lived on Parkin St at a later time, however, I believe that this child is Clement's. This is further supported by a poem in Clement's obituary: From the Baltimore Morning Sun, 19 Feb 1881: 'Clement, thou hast gone to the angels divine
Thy dear little son did leave thee behind; But, oh, in what glory your soon open eyes, To meet little Edward high up in the skies.' By his friend, D.B.L. |

NOTE: It is very possible that Walter Coleman was Emma Jane Coleman's brother. He was 36 years old and stated that he knew her for 16 years setting his age at about 20 -21 years. It was possible that the length of time that you legally knew a person could not be set before your legal age of 21. Also it should be noted that Clement and Emma were married about 16 years at the time of his death meaning that he knew her when she was Mrs. Henrickle for 16 years.

Death certificate 46225 obtained from microfilm reel CR 48,059. From death certificate: 38 years old, fireman on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. Birthplace: Baltimore Duration: Life. Place of death: Baltimore & Ohio Railroad near Scott Street. Cause: Struck by an engine on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad near Scott Street. Neck broken and left side of abdomen punctured. Killed immediately.

From the Baltimore Morning Sun, 17 Feb, 1881 (Front page): "KILLED BY A LOCOMOTIVE: Clement Henrickle, aged 38 years, a fireman employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, was struck by locomotive No. 410 and instantly killed yesterday afternoon at the foot of Scott Street. It is stated that Henrickle was seen standing between two tracks awaiting, as was his custom, a freight train, on which he expected to ride to Locust Point. The 4:40 PM express train, drawn by locomotive No. 410, in some unexplained way struck the unfortunate man. The express train was stopped immediately after the accident and it was found that Mr. Henrickle's neck was broken and that he had received also a lacerated wound in the left abdomen. The body was removed to his late residence. Dr. S.A. Bell, coroner, was notified, and he empaneled a jury, as follows: Charles A. Cook, foreman, Conrad Nazareus, James Carney, George Wesley, William Amey, Charles Leahmann, Andrew Weissmann, Michael Nartney, John Brooks, W. T. Lewis, Michael O'Brien, and Richard A. Lippey. After viewing the body the jury adjourned to meet this evening to take evidence."

From The Evening Herald of Thursday, February 17, 1881: AN ENGINEER KILLED: Clement Henrickle, aged 38, a locomotive engineer in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and for some time past engaged at Locust Point, was killed shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, while on his way to Locust Point to report to duty. He was walking along the track when the express train from Locust Point, drawn by engine No. 410 came in sight and whistled for him to look out. The unfortunate man, thinking that he was on the same tract as the train, stepped on the next track, and was struck by the pilot of the locomotive and instantly killed. His remains were taken to his residence, 387 Scott Street, where they await interment. He has been employed for some time past by the company, and is spoken of in the highest terms of praise. He leave a wife and three children, all of whom were dependent on him for means of subsistence. An inquest will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the Southern Police Station.

From The Gazette, 17 February 1881: KILLED ON THE RAIL: Clement Henrickle, aged 38 years, a fireman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was struck and instantly killed by the 4:40 express from Locust Point at 4:50 yesterday afternoon, while standing at the foot of Scott Street. The deceased was on his way to Locust Point, where he was going to commence work for the night. At the foot of Scott Street he saw the express from Locust Point approaching and made an effort to get out of its way. He was unsuccessful and the engine, No. 410, struck him full, knocking him some distance and occasioning instant death. He was removed to his home, 389 Scott Street, and Coroner Bell notified. He leaves a wife and several children. The unfortunate man had been in the employ of the railroad company for some years. Coroner Bell will hold an inquest at the Southern Police Station at 8 PM today.

From the Baltimore Morning Sun, 18 Feb, 1881 (Front page): "An inquest as to the death of Clement Henrickle, who was killed Wednesday afternoon on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was held last night by Coroner Dr. S.A. Bell and a jury at the southern police station. The witnesses were George W. Bierly, engineer; Lewis H. Hess, fireman; Charles W. Lusby, a newsboy; John W. Miller and August Hukenburg. The evidence went to show that Clement Henrickle, while standing near the north track of the road waiting for a coal train to pass on which he was to ride to Locust Point, was struck by locomotive No. 410, drawing an express train, and instantly killed. The jury, after deliberating two hours, rendered a verdict that 'deceased was killed by being struck by an engine on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad track near Scott Street while placing himself in a perilous or dangerous position, and that we find his death was caused by negligence on his part.'"

From the Baltimore Morning Sun, 19 Feb, 1881 (Obituary Notices): "HENRICKLE - Suddenly, on the 16th instant, CLEMENT B. W. Emma next married (2) George LANGARD 19 Oct 1881, in Columbia Ave, Meth Epis Church, Baltimore City, MD. He was born in NY.

No children have yet been identified.

George died before Sep 1890, in Baltimore City, MD.

NOTES for George follow:

Info obtained from Civil War Pension of Clement Henrickle.

Emma died after 1895.

NOTES for Emma follow:

Located in the 1870 Maryland Census with husband. She is listed as Margaret A. Henrickle, aged 29 pointing to birth year of 1851. She is listed as keeping house.

Found in 1880 MD Census with husband, 'Clement Henrickle'. Claims that both of her parents were born in MD.

Marriage license date of 24 May 1866 found at the Hall of Records in Annapolis. She is shown as being single, 17 years old, and a resident of Baltimore. Marriage license was issued on 23 May 1866 and filed on 5 July 1866. She was married to Clement on 24 May 1866 at the Franklin Street Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. C.A. Reid.

It is possible that her father is Alexander Coleman. An Alexander Coleman, aged 61 in 1892 (b. abt 1831) signed a General Affidavit regarding Emma, Clement and her two young daughters. He could have easily been her father or an uncle. He would have been too old for a brother. A marriage record is recorded at the Hall of Records in Annapolis, Maryland for an Alexander Coleman who married a Margareta Ann Hartlove on 5 January, 1849. This could certainly be the above mentioned Alexander and could be the father of Emma J. Coleman who was born abt 1851. A Walter Coleman, aged 36 in 1893, also filed a General Affidavit. He would have been born about 1857 and could be a brother to Emma Coleman. A Census points to her being born about 1851. A General Affidavit points to her being 40 years of age in 1890.

It should also be noted that in the 1880 Census (above stated) an Alexander Coleman, aged 48 and wife Margaret A. aged 47 are living next door to Clement Henrickle and his wife Emma. Of additional interest is that on the other side of the Henricks are David Simmont, aged 23 and Elizabeth his wife aged 24. Living with them are their son Clarence Simmont, a 9 month old born in September 1879. It all of the census information is correct it would appear that Alexander and Margaret A. Coleman would be about 18-19 years older than Emma, certainly within a time span to be her parents.

From the book: Departed This Life - Death Notices from Baltimore Sun Vol I: William David Coleman, age 2 1/2, son of Noah and Catherine Ann Coleman died 6 Jan 1857. This would set his birth about summer of 1854. Could possibly be a brother to Emma J. Coleman. However it is possible that Noah Coleman and the above mentioned Alexander Coleman were brothers.

Possibly married a BOWEN after the death of her second husband George Langard.
